Juice Box Heroes Release Their 2nd CD, "Loose Tooth"

13 New Recordings Inspired By Hit '80s Songs Already Getting Rave Reviews

Cyber Monday seemed like the perfect day for brothers Craig and Scott Coane to announce the release of Juice Box Heroes' 2nd CD titled "Loose Tooth."

"The internet has done wonders to quickly spread the word about our music," said Scott Coane, "so we thought today would be an ideal day to spread the word about 'Loose Tooth'."

Coming off their award winning debut CD "No Sugar Added", Juice Box Heroes have continued their unique brand of children's music by taking popular rock songs from the past and parodying them with new lyrics for kids. This time, it's all about the '80s.

"Scott and I grew up with '80s music," said brother Craig, "we've been giddy about this new CD ever since we wrote the lyrics to the title song 'Loose Tooth'."

Loose Tooth, a parody of Kenny Loggins' smash movie soundtrack title "Footloose", is one of many hand clappin', body shakin' tunes on the new CD. Fans of songs like General Public's "Tenderness", Kool & The Gang's "Celebration" and J. Geils Band's "Freeze Frame" will soon be singing along with their kids to "Room's A Mess", "Fire Station" and "Freeze Tag."

"We're still smiling about this CD," said Scott, "we absolutely loved writing and recording these songs!" said Scott.

And critics are loving it the new songs too. Already reviewed as "an amazing second effort" and "even better than the first CD", Juice Box Heroes are ready to capture the imaginations of kids and parents alike.
